Committee members if you can come dressed in Western mode,,,cowboys boots, flannel shirts, chaps, etc.

All committee members agreed to reach out to recruit more members to sign up. We are allowing last minute walk ins at door who will be charged $15 to join in fun. Current # are low, so we need to rev this event up guys!!!!

Seems to be that women are not interested in cards, but after last night I'm in.

Holiday Party 12/9 Update

Our guest bartender for the evening will be Rebecca which is delightful holiday surprise. Christian will be her back up.

We will be ordering wholesale wine through Davide which will include white, red, and bubbly. I will inquire about consignment of the wine, so what we don't drink we get credit.

I will coordinate a meeting between Chris and Davide for walk through of tent setting to assure compliance with all building codes, etc.

December 3 will be club decorating gathering. Liz T. is in charge of recruiting her decorating elves to fill the club with lights and glitter. We will have edible treats for volunteers. Please plan on helping with this event that will begin at 4 PM on 12/3 Sunday.

We do need to purchase new lights that provide gold/silver glittering effect since that's the theme for Home for the Holiday Party. Liz & Janet will handle.

Janet will check in with Steve to have poster ready by next week.

From this point forward it's pushing members to attend this holiday event back home where they've requested it to be.

Any clever marketing ideas let us know. It's a fact that some members do not read their emails and that is our primary means of promoting events these internet days.

Our next meeting will be December 5, Tuesday at 6 PM.
