

The MTC Membership Committee met this past Thursday, February 15th @ 5:30 pm.

Mercita Oliva will take the helm as Chair of the Membership Committee as of the Annual Meeting on March 1st. Linda will continue with support. Erick will assist with data analysis.

Chris reported on the membership status of 323 active members. We have six new members in 2018 and three resignations. Chris reported he is working on a Dominican Pay as you Play benefit for MTC members. Business directory and Free Guest Passes are on hold.

Lyn Gardiner will be distributing a survey to all women members regarding their play interests.

The Committee recommends to the Board that Ted Smith who is over 90 be recognized perhaps as an Honorary Member paying no dues but continuing his monthly food and refreshment plan. Lisa will take to the Board yet this month.

Michelle Verloop will follow up her January presentation to the Board of her Value findings from the last all member survey. She is expected to meet with the new Board in March.

The following are suggestions for 2018 Goals:

Membership Value Statement
Orientation Survey showing playing habits and wishes of new members
Business Directory
New Members Serving on Committees
Challenge Ladders
Challenge Courts
Round Robin Team Practices
Mixed Doubles Expanded
New Member Integration
Super Senior Membership
Women's Rated Clinics

Mixed Doubles will resume in March on Tuesday evenings from 5 - 7pm on reserved courts. Sandy Scott will organize the 3.5-4.0 players. We are seeking a leader for the 3.0-3.5 players.

Wakana Women's Rated Clinics at noon Mon- Wed are full and popular. Geoff's Saturday morning rated clinics are also full and popular. Linda will continue to manage these or the pros for another month.

Office Assistant Comments are welcome, Mercita will interview them.

Super Senior Membership Category. After the wait list is settled in, we will recommend to the Board that members 85 and older who qualify for senior membership status, will have their dues waived but not the food and beverage fees. There are currently 11 such seniors, 1 female and 10 males. (Marks are not included as they are Honorary Members already.

Erin Henke and Shari Havasi resignations are accepted. Their contributions to the committee are appreciated.

Attending: Mercita Oliva, Katharine Fisher, Linda Gordon, Lisa Cush and Chris Horne.
